Literature Review: Refugee Urban Integration

A FEINSTEIN INTERNATIONAL CENTER BRIEF

Karen Jacobsen and Charles Simpson

with Marina Lazetić, Jessica Sadye Wolff, Madison Chapman, and Anna Cumming

This is a section of a broad literature review on refugee urban integration that was conducted by the Refugees in Towns Project (RIT) at Feinstein International Center, Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy at Tufts University beginning in December 2017 and being continually updated with new publications. It was conducted to inform the public, academics, and policymakers about the state of refugee urban integration, and to prepare the RIT project for analysis of original data on refugee integration collected from towns around the world.
